Bloodmobile

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be stationed at the Plant Industry Station at Beltsville on Tuesday, June 24, from ten o'clock in the morning until four in the afternoon. Mrs. Margaret Brown, the plant nurse, is in charge of recruitment. Arrangements for transportation may be made by calling Mrs. Brown at TOWER 6400 ext. 316 or the Red Cross office, WARfield 4400.

Blood is urgently needed for the armed forces, local hospitals and veterans hospitals. You may telephone today to make your appointment to give a pint of blood. It's painless . . . it's easy . . . it can save a life.

WALTONIAN OUTING

Plans have been completed for the Izaak Walton League outing for Saturday, July 5. Captain Tom Smith, chairman of the committee, has set up a program which begins at 11 a.m. and includes casting, fishing, pony rides, hot dogs and refreshments. With the exception of fireworks and the substitution of water events for foot races, the affair should be practically the same as the one planned for the Fourth of July.

All fishing contestants over 13 will be required to have a State Fishing License before they can enter. Licenses are obtainable by application at the Police Department.

Pack 202 Performs At Council Fire

Cub Scout Pack 202 opened their June Pack meeting with a lively Indian dance, after which all the Cubs were seated around the Council fire with Akela (Cubmaster Ohlmacher) and Lions Walden, Hunt and La Macchia in the center. Lion Lance Walden constructed the Council fire as a service to his Pack.

The Braves of Den 2 gave a pantomime of the story of "Strong Heart" with James Hunt reading. Den 8 produced their version of "Ten Little Indians." Edward Wilkinson of Den 4 displayed a shield which he had decorated with Indian symbols.

The Lions brought to the Council fire Edward Reid, Frank Compier, Byron Page, Robert O'Meara, Robert Fink, Arlin Sandvik and Lester Page to receive their bobcat pins, the first step in cubbing. James Shaffer and Chester Confer were given their Lion awards; Mitchell Bukzin, the bear award and one arrow point; Richard Gadol and Charles Anders became assistant Densers in their dens.

Alexander Chavrid, Leslie Linetsky, Richard Emde, Walter Fink, Tommy Stage, David Dalbow, Richard Moss, James Hunt, Jerry Brennan and Richard Gadol received arrow points to add to their badges. Mrs. Compier, the new Den mother of new Den 1 was awarded the Den Mothers' pin.

Ian Vogl, Robert Shaffer, James Kessinger, Charles Anders, Jack Fruchtmann, Jr., and Robert Coleman, Jr. received scarf slides for their uniforms as a reward for selling 10 tickets to the National Scouting Exposition; also Pack 202 won a blue ribbon for their scissors silhouette booth at the Exposition.

Local scouting leaders are planning to have a scouting exposition in Greenbelt this fall.

Pack 202 will have some vacancies this summer. Any boy between the ages of 8 and 11 years, who is interested in becoming a Cub, should contact Mr. Andros at Gr-3612.

World Famous Team Plays Here Sunday

This Sunday the Oklahoma Cowboys will play the Arcade Pontiac team at Braden Field in what the Greenbelt Athletic Club promises will be a knock-out softball match.

The Cowboys have one of the best softball teams in the country, with a 1952 record of 54 wins against 4 defeats. They just finished touring Florida where they beat the Clearwater Bombers, world's softball champs of 1950 and 1951, two out of three games. Not only are the Cowboys an ace softball team but also they put on a very fine show before the game.

Arcade Pontiac, one of the best teams in this area, will play them with Red Kramer pitching. Alvis Ricki will pitch for the Cowboys. GAC has arranged for many more seats to be available at the field. Tickets may be purchased at the Police Station and the Service Station.

Duplicate Bridge Winners

The Greenbelt Bridge Club held its last duplicate tournament of the season Friday, June 20.

Three couples won first place honors: Mrs. Frances Miller and Mrs. Ethel Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwimmer, and Mr. and Mrs. James Daly.

The club will resume its activities in September.

The club members presented a gift to Mrs. Eva Daly, through whose efforts the club was formed and has functioned so successfully.

Refreshments were served after the tournament.

GCS Directors Ready For June 27 Meeting

By George C. Reeves

"Problems connected with the sale of the commercial facilities" were the sole topic of discussion at a special meeting of the directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., last Tuesday. The board sought to formulate a statement of policy, or of alternative policies for consideration by the membership at the special membership meeting which has been called for Friday, June 27, at 8:30 p.m. in the Center School auditorium. However, as negotiations with the Public Housing Administration have been in progress for some time but are not yet completed, and the evolution of a GCS policy has necessarily depended on the attitudes of other interested parties, no definite statement could be arrived at.

Since the board must prepare its presentation for June 27 in any case, it was decided to hold one more board meeting before the membership assemblies.

The negotiations, and the economic, legal and financial studies on the basis of which GCS can decide what to aim at have been conducted by Sam Ashelman, general manager, with the assistance of Robert Morrow, comptroller, independent appraisers, and the law firm of Krooth and Altman, who have also been retained by the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation. An understanding has been reached with GVHC through committee conferences. Earlier proposals that GVHC should purchase the commercial sites as well as the residential property have been ruled out by common consent. The problem confronting GCS has therefore become whether to buy or to continue to rent the land and buildings in the Greenbelt commercial center. GCS already owns the supermarket building, but leases the land under it, as well as all the other mercantile buildings it occupies. A plan to buy, if possible, only the land under the supermarket and three vacant parcels, and to continue renting the other buildings from PHA or its successor owner appears at the moment the most practical.

The June 30 deadline means that, if current negotiations should break down, PHA could offer the property for sale after June 30 to others by bids or by negotiation. Under the present lease, however, which has four more years to run, an extension under certain conditions would be binding upon any landlord.

Ashelman, by presenting the possibility of another shopping center being built somewhere between the high school and the cloverleaf entrance to the new Washington-Baltimore Parkway, pointed out that GCS might not want to have too much capital invested in ownership of the buildings it now occupies.

PHA has expressed a preference for selling the entire Greenbelt shopping center as a unit, but has said that if GCS is to buy only part of it, while renting the rest, then the lease terms would have to be reviewed and possibly revised. Replying to a criticism in the Operator's editorial of June 12, he said that all possible information had been released to the public concerning the negotiations, and all questions fully discussed with the board.

The June 27 membership meeting, in addition to considering the real estate question, will take up the question of the propriety of the recent appointment of Eleanor Ritchie to fill a vacancy on the board. The special meeting has been called by the board at the insistence of the audit committee.

Community Mgr. On GVHC Agenda

A special membership meeting of the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation will be held soon after signing the contract with Public Housing Administration. The purpose of the meeting will be to explain to the members the provisions of the contract.

President Mike Salzman appointed Roy Davis and Ed Burgoon to investigate the possibilities of recruiting agents to sell the remaining unsold units in Greenbelt.

Al Long asked the board several questions concerning the employment of a community manager. It was agreed that such a manager need not live in Greenbelt; that his salary range should be $8,000 to $10,000 per year, and that his actual employment should depend on how much time PHA will allow GVHC to take title to the homes.

John Beckham resigned from the chairmanship of the public relations committee due to pressure of his own business. Bruce Bowman agreed to resume the post provided he could get help from the membership.

A request for a reduction in the sales price of a unit was deferred to consideration with similar matters when GVHC negotiates the sale price.

(Editor's note: This story is based on highlights from the minutes of Monday's Board Meeting.)

Boy's Club Plans Mammoth July 4

Plan to spend the Fourth of July with the Greenbelt Boy's Club at the Lake area. There will be something doing all day long beginning at 10 a.m. with a big parade under the direction of Parade Marshal Austin Gren. Parade will form at Ridge and Southway, passing down Southway, thru Centerway and out Crescent past the reviewing stand ending at the lake. It will last from forty-five minutes to one hour. Prizes will be awarded to the most outstanding units in the parade. There will be a drill team of Marines from the Washington Barracks and a Platoon of Navy Special Guards. Awards will also be given to the best decorated bicycle and the best-decorated tricycle, and to the most outstanding boy and girl costume.

A prominent guest speaker will start off the celebrations at the lake after the parade. Just who it will be will have to be a secret until next Thursday's issue of the paper, at which time a complete program with the various events and their time will be printed. Don't miss this if you are remaining in Greenbelt for the Fourth. You will have the time of your life. We will have bingo operating with some excellent prizes such as picnic water or soda coolers and other items. Don't need to bring your lunch, as plenty will be on hand such as the cake and milk bar, hot dogs and soft drinks. All kinds of games and amusements plus many athletic events—but you will have the complete program next Thursday. A large fireworks display will come on at dark over the lake, and it should be a sight to see. Watch for the program next week.

JCC BOATRIDE

The JCC boat ride and picnic which was scheduled for last Sunday was cancelled due to weather. The same affair is planned for this Sunday, June 29. For further information call I. Stalberg, Gr. 7196, or S. Schwimer, Gr. 8462. Come one, come all.

Takoma On The Ball-??? Greenbelt

The pictures above show the signs advertising the GCS special membership meeting tomorrow night. In Takoma large posters on all stores announce not only the meeting but the issues to be taken up at it. In Greenbelt, banners at the food and drug store tell only date, time and place.

Furthermore it was brought to the Cooperator's attention that Takoma GCS members are receiving, besides the Auditing Committee and Board of Director reports being sent to all members, a special flyer with a printed headline: Is Your Stake in the Co-op Worth Fighting For? The flyer goes on, after detailing the agenda, to ask "Will the membership censor or uphold the Board . . . Will the members rule at the Center School . . . ?"

Intensive questioning of GCS personnel has established the fact that both the super-special posters and the super-special flyer (which was printed on a GCS letterhead) were spearheaded by the active volunteer Takoma group known as the Customer's Advisory Council, whose chairman is Harriette B. Hansen of that area. The flyer is undersigned by that group.

As late as Wednesday morning general manager Sam Ashelman said he "knew nothing about and had not seen" the special flyer. Funds for publicity for meetings come from the general corporation treasury and the Greenbelt office handles duplication. Ashelman admitted that "a distinction ought to be made between encouraging people to come to meetings and propaganda" and suggested that his public relations staff perform this duty. He himself, he said, "does not customarily okay" notices to the membership of this kind.

Townsend Scudder, GCS publicity man, readily affirmed his handling of all notices printed for the special meeting, in the ordinary course of his duties which did not, he said, cover "responsibility for the material that goes out. The individual or the group preparing the material takes the responsibility for it." Scudder was not aware of the disparity between the store announcements, along with Ashelman and Mrs. Carnie Harper, auditing committee chairman. It was the general consensus of opinion that the Customer's Advisory Committee, described by Ashelman as a "semi-official" group, had undertaken all Takoma publicity and were perfectly within their rights to do so.

Responsible personnel agreed that meeting notices were handled according to the wishes and suggestions of members or their representatives or organized groups, such as the Takoma committee. Harry Zubkoff, education director for the GCS Board, stated that he had offered several suggestions to Scudder for the implementation of GCS publicity for this meeting, among them a special flyer, and an extra news-letter issue. None of his contributions was put into action.

A survey of the above evidence must reveal two peculiarities in the present set-up of GCS publicity: (1) that there is no official responsibility for certain types of publicity for which the corporation funds are used; and (2) that any pressure group determined to do so can use a special meeting announcement to propagandize in favor of the issues it supports.

MENU OF THE WEEK

HOT BACON POTATO SALAD
5-6 medium potatoes
½ cup diced celery
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
3 teaspoons salt
2 strips bacon
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
3 tablespoons sugar
½ cup cider vinegar
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley

when crisp, cut in $\frac{1}{3}$ inch pieces and add to potatoes. Mix together the flour, mustard, sugar and remaining 1 teaspoon salt and blend into the bacon fat. Add vinegar and water. Cook, stirring constantly, until the mixture thickens and boils. Pour over potatoes and mix lightly with a fork. Cover and let stand at least 1 hour. Heat in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Serves 6.

Letters To Editor

IS YOUR STAKE IN THE CO-OP WORTH FIGHTING FOR?

Dear Cooperator,

By now you have received notice of the Special Co-op Membership meeting on Friday, June 27, 1952, at 8:30 p.m. at the Greenbelt Center School.

I wish to urge you to make every effort to attend this meeting. Only your presence can make the will of the membership effective.

Here are the issues:

1. Shall GCS purchase its commercial facilities in Greenbelt? Shall we expend almost one half million dollars for real estate?

2. Audit committee reports on the method by which a Board vacancy, created by the automatic removal of a Takoma Board member, was filled; and recommends procedure.

3. The membership considers the method by which the vacancy was filled (only a quorum replaces Takoma Board member, immediately filling the vacancy without nominations from the entire Board).

4. The membership considers recommendations concerning the procedure to be followed in filling vacancies. Will the membership censor or uphold the Board?

Will the members rule at Center School? We will if you are there.

Cooperatively yours

Harriette B. Hansen,
Chairman
Customer's Advisory Council,
Takoma Co-op.

(Editor's note: This letter was sent to Takoma members under a GCS letterhead)

From the Audit Committee

I am puzzled by the effort in your editorial last week to separate the decision on the sale of Greenbelt from the question of the propriety of the election of a Co-op director. Actually it is the directors who must carry out the decisions of the membership meeting, if the decisions are to have any meaning. An unrepresentative or improperly constituted board is hardly the appropriate medium for this task, particularly in a time when vital and long-range decisions must be made.

In an editorial you state "absentee membership makes for management dictatorship." Actually absentee membership makes for board dictatorship, for the board is the final authority if the membership abdicates its power. But even if, as I hope and expect, a large number of members are present at the membership meeting, the members can only determine the major outline of the course to be taken by the Co-op; important details and implementing decisions will be required of the board.

In your report of the recent board meetings, which I considered to be in general an excellent summary of rather complicated deliberations, I must protest the implications which you have drawn from an exchange between Mr. Winegarden and myself. My point was that the committee is concerned about an action which it considers unwise, unprecedented, and damaging to the Co-op, and that it does not intend to be diverted from trying to see that the action is corrected and the precedent denied. When in the past other actions have seemed improper, I have not hesitated to question them, as I think anyone familiar with the history of the Co-op can attest. As chairman of the auditing committee I will do my best to investigate any such actions which come to my attention. If the editor has specific occurrences in mind, I would appreciate being advised of them.

Adult Swimming

Speaking in behalf of other interested persons, I hereby protest the discontinuance of the swimming classes for adults. The city office personnel has cited that the reason for this change is that we adults, perhaps with some exceptions, merely use the pool in the morning for a free swim. True, the pool is not open to the public then, and the privacy therein gives us a feeling of luxury of having virtually a private pool in our own back yard. However, for the benefit of those of us adults who honestly wish to learn, or improve upon our present technique, I urge that this measure be rescinded. It is said daily, "We owe it to ourselves as well as to others to learn to swim."

Letters to Editor

TO ALL MEMBERS OF GCS:

Greenbelt Consumer Services must decide before June 30, the deadline set by Public Housing Administration for its negotiation with the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation, as to:

What will become of the commercial property in Greenbelt?

You have been called to a meeting Friday, June 7, at 8:30 p.m. in the Greenbelt Center School Auditorium, where the following alternatives will be presented:

1. SIT TIGHT — Continue our present lease without other action.

a. GCS now has a lease on the stores in the Greenbelt Center which has about 4½ more years to run.

b. Regardless of whom the government sells the center to, GCS is protected under the lease when it comes up for renewal.

c. However, renewal of the lease may present certain risks, such as the possibility of less favorable rental terms.

d. No present expenditure would be involved in sitting tight; GCS could reserve its funds for other use in the business.

2. PURCHASE ALL COMMERCIAL PROPERTY AT CENTER OFFERED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

a. PHA is offering for sale all commercial property in Greenbelt, including all buildings at the center (except the food store which is owned by GCS), at a price of $628,000. This price includes vacant land at the north end and north end store building for which PHA is asking $75,000.

b. GCS cannot deal directly with the government at this time. In any purchase of Greenbelt property before June 30, PHA will deal only with GVHC. GVHC has not indicated a desire to purchase the property for itself or to have GCS occupy the property as a member of GVHC. GCS would put up the down payment and receive a sales contract under which it could at any time pay off the mortgage and obtain title to the property.

c. The Board has considered purchase of the property in this manner through GVHC and will present further facts and figures at the meeting.

3. PURCHASE PART OF THE COMMERCIAL PROPERTY.

a. The land under the GCS Supermarket together with an area known as parcel "A" (located west of the variety store and opposite the supermarket) is offered for sale by PHA.

b. Other commercial parcels adjacent to the center are: 80-C, an area facing Crescent Road just north of the service station; 81-C, an area now occupied by garages on the south side of Parkway between Apartments 1 to 7 and 9.

to 13; and the Polygon, an island opposite the front door of the bank.

These alternatives are still in process of further consideration and negotiation with PHA, thru GVHC. Additional facts and recommendations will be given to the Membership at the meeting.

T. GEORGE DAVIDSON,
Secretary.

(Editor's note: This is one of the flyers about the special meeting sent to all GCS members.)

VA Information

Editor's note: Ex-servicemen and women are vitally interested in the benefits their Government offers them through Veterans Administration and they are asking thousands of questions daily. Full information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q. I obtained a GI business loan, which is to be repaid in five years. I find that the monthly payments are too high for me to meet. Is it possible to extend the maturity of the loan, and thus reduce monthly payments?

A. Yes, provided both you and your lender agree to extend it, and the extension provides that the loan will be completely repaid within 10 years—the maximum period allowed, under the law, for GI business loans.

Q. I am a World War II veteran, finishing high school under the GI Bill. Since I have some entitlement left, would I be permitted to go on with a course in a vocational school?

A. Yes. VA considers your high school training as an educational background that will enable you successfully to pursue your vocational training. Your vocational course, therefore, would be a normal progression from your high school course—allowable under the GI Bill.

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran, and my application for a pension was turned down by VA because my income was higher than the maximum allowed by law. I understand there's a new law, raising the amount of income I'm allowed to have and still qualify. What can I do to get a pension, under this new law?

A. You will have to file a new claim for reconsideration of your case, on or after July 1, 1952—the date the new provision becomes effective. There will be no automatic review of rejected claims.

My Daze

Baby and I have agreed that he's outgrown his playpen. Truthfully he came to this conclusion long before I did, and has at last won from me a reluctant consent to "turn him loose." Filled with curiosity, but low on judgment, baby finds the price of liberty high. Doors and drawers close on his fingers, he's forever at the mercy of giant feet stepping all about, heavy jars tumble off shelves as he pokes into cabinets, and of course a bumped head or cut lip is a frequent outcome of heedless creeping and stretching into mysterious corners. Despite these mishaps, however, he no doubt feels that the fun and excitement of the big world more than compensate for all its dangers.

It's actually possible to be too courteous when driving. If upon entering an intersection with this green light I see a car waiting to turn, I'm inclined to stop and let him pass in front of me. This exceeding politeness is appreciated neither by the drivers behind me who find the sudden stop disconcerting, nor by the driver turning, for he's only confused and can't believe I'm serious. More common sense and less courtesy is in order in that situation, because to keep moving with traffic and doing what's expected is the safest policy.

Our boy gets very priggish sometimes, and too often takes it upon himself to correct his sister, who is a year younger. When she once took a cupcake without permission, he was outraged, and embarked upon a long harangue on how it was bad for her teeth, about the fact that the cupcake had been expressly put away for the next day and so on. "Besides," he concluded, "you should have shared it with me."

My husband was distinctly annoyed to discover, as he was preparing to go to work one morning, that the clock was correct instead of the fifteen minutes fast it had

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority

Summer driving affords a lot of pleasures—and a few problems as well.

Fortunately, the most common complaints of the touring season have easy cures.

1—Bugs in the radiator: Place the water hose under the hood and squirt water outward through the radiator apertures. Be careful not to wet the motor or the wiring.

2—Upholstery fading: Vent-shades over the side windows cut down the direct rays of the sun.

3—Boiling radiator: Preventive medicine advised here. Have the radiator flushed and cooling system conditioner added. Have fanbelt checked for proper tension.

4—Breathing dust: Keep car floor mats well brushed, for dust on the floor is usually the culprit. It's circulated to your nostrils by the air vents.

5—Hot seat: Special wicker backrests allow air to circulate behind the driver or passenger, help make the whole body feel cooler.

6—Accumulated dirt on the engine: Caused by excessive dirt-road driving. Steam-cleaning the engine is the most effective remedy.

If you have any questions on car care or driving comfort during the summer, I'll be happy to answer them.

... started folks thinking about their fire insurance.

Remember: if you had to buy your home furnishings today - you'd pay almost twice as much for them! Have you enough fire insurance to cover these higher values, in case of loss?

Boy's Club Activities

Not too much in the way of baseball except for the Midgets winning two games since last report. The Midgets defeated University Park last Wednesday the 17th 12 to 5 thereby clinching the first half in their section in the Prince Georges County League. They were undefeated in League play. Landover won the first half in their section and Takoma Park were the winners in their section. The various age-group leagues are split up into three sections in the County and will have a playoff at the end of the season to determine the County Champs. The Midgets defeated Green Meadows Tuesday evening 4th 10 to 4 with the 4 hit pitching of Gallagher. This makes twenty wins out of twenty four ball games for the Midgets.

The Intermediates (Blue Jays) were rained out so there is no change there. The Juniors (Orioles) were the winners in a thriller at College Park Stadium Tuesday evening against University Park. This was a 1 to 0 ball game and Jim Stripling won his own game. Jim missed a no hitter by one hit in the last inning. He struck out 13 and walked only two men. Only twenty five men faced him in the game. Jim also drove in the only Greenbelt run with a sharp triple out between the center and right fielder in the top of the seventh inning driving in Bruce MacEwan who had singled just ahead of him. Stripling and MacEwan got two hits, Moore, Miller and Cockill each one. This gives the Juniors three wins out of four games in the County League.

No report from the Seniors since last week. See you next week.
